DESCRIPTION
"My first contact with Mahgreb culture left me with the same deep feeling of exhilaration as that of one's first trip abroad. I am still left with a flow of unconnected memories : traces of history, people and architecture, remembrances of the past and the thanklessness of traditions. So many impressions that overwhelmed my North-American state of mind and that have helped me to see beyond it. This first video is my way of sharing my personal journey into a foreign country."
