L'APPÂT

DIRECTOR

Jean Décarie (Neam Cathod) Marie Andrée Wallot Jean-Pierre Simard

DURATION 24:00

YEAR 1992

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE No dialogue

CATEGORY Video Art Dance

DESCRIPTION

L'Appât is a Simard/Wallot choreographic re-invention of the love duel. It presents a striking union between the forms of dance and sculpture. Neam Cathod's visual adaptation, recorded both on stage and near the banks of a river, evokes a primitive world and accentuates the conflicts between the two protagonists. The director uses video effects to transform the movements of the dancers into intense visual images.

SOUND

Stereo

KEYWORDS

Sculpture, Experimentation, Nature, Seduction, Confrontation

THEMES

Art and culture Environment