Vithèque
La collection
de Vidéographe

PIERRE AND THE PENNY

DIRECTOR
Denys Desjardins
Stéphane Thibault

DURATION
15:00

YEAR
2005

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
French

CATEGORY
Fiction

DESCRIPTION
It is Pierre's 50th birthday, and his family has gathered together to show their love - and to rummage in his enormous piggy-bank. An American penny of great value is supposed to be hidden there. But Pierre, mentally challenged, has no ambition of becoming rich, unlike his brothers and sisters. Inspired by real events, this film tells the story of a mysterious penny that puts a spell on the entire family.

SOUND
Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT
DVCAM

KEYWORDS
Difference, Disability, Altruism, Anniversary, Miserliness, Money

THEMES
Identity
Health
Family