DESCRIPTION
Saint-Jean-Baptiste Day, Montreal. Among the fleur-de-lys flags, Quebecois of all origins speak out from the crowd. They speak of a Quebec they all wish for, a place where all those who have chosen it may realise their dreams and contribute to a collective plan for society. A vibrant, funny, touching and unquestionably optimistic reflection on Quebec's changing society. A positive portrait of Quebecois who are not Quebecois by birth.
