KARMA

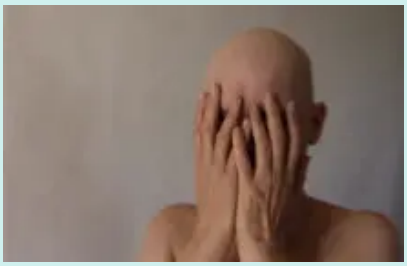

DIRECTOR
Chantal duPont

DURATION
1:30

YEAR
2006

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
No dialogue

CATEGORY
Video Art

DESCRIPTION
Using video images taken in 1999-2000, Chantal duPont revisits a difficult past, twirling it about to catch a glimpse of a future she takes charge of. She borrows Pascal Quignard's definition of karma in his book Les Ombres errantes : all the dreams, words, actions and intentions that weave our future body. The sanskrit word karma means this weaving of actions without meaning. This video is part of the video-collage FemLink on the theme of "Fragility".

SOUND
Mono

SHOOTING FORMAT
MiniDV

FURTHER INFORMATION

Source of inspiration

All the dreams, words, actions and intentions weave the body to come. The Sanskrit word karma signifies this tissue, which is this work of actions without accepting their meaning.

QUIGNARD, Pascal. Les Ombres errantes. ??dition Grasset et Fasquelle, Paris, 2002, 189 p.

KEYWORDS
Body, Spirituality, disease, cancer, women

THEMES
Health
Identity
Private life