SUMMER 86 : A NEIGHBOURHOOD NOTEBOOK

DIRECTOR
Edward Hillel

DURATION
29:00

YEAR
1987

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
English
French

CATEGORY
Documentary

DESCRIPTION
This documentary delves into a small multi-ethnic neighborhood in Montreal, in full socio-economic transition. The narrative establishes a dialogue between the past and the present by combining original recordings with their ambiant sounds, photographs, interviews and diary excerpts. The heart of St.Laurent boulevard appears as a place we always return to... as tourists.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

SOUND
Mono and stereo

KEYWORDS
Community, Multiculturalism, Multiethnicity, Diversity, Harmony, Cohabitation

THEMES
Art and culture
Identity
Environment
Society