VIRTUAL LOVE

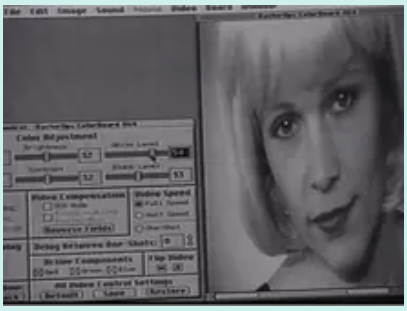

DIRECTOR
Lynn Hershman-Leeson

DURATION
70:28

YEAR
1993

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
English

CATEGORY
Documentary
Fiction

DESCRIPTION
Virtual Love is a unique story that uses parallel narratives to tell a story about love, illusion and truth. When Valery falls in love with one of two identical twin scientists, she finds she can have a more intimate relationship through the computer. A love story for the 90's, this is a work about Virtual Reality, relationships and identity in the electronic world. Commissioned by ZDF Television, Germany, the work features numerous virtual reality experts such as Sandy Stone, Jaron Lanier and R.U. Sirius.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

KEYWORDS
Fantasy, Computer, Love, Obsession

THEMES
Identity
Private life