THE ROOF

DIRECTOR
Anne-Marie Giroux
Marlene Millar
Roland Goguen
Sylvain Delisle

DURATION
18:43

YEAR
1993

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
No dialogue

CATEGORY
Dance

DESCRIPTION
A danced story in which individuals linked around a table, on the roof of a derelict building, take us to the edge of forbidden zones and to the brink of a dream. Inspired by sites located in the Eastern Townships as well as the interior of an abandoned, downtown edifice, the poetic imagination of four young choreographers transforms a legend...

SOUND
Stereo

KEYWORDS
Body, Dream, Desert, Allegory, Landscape, Environment, Space, Water, Movement

THEMES
Art and culture
Environment
Society