Vithèque
La collection
de Vidéographe

DÉDALE

DIRECTOR
Mario Côté

DURATION
9:00

YEAR
2008

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
No dialogue

CATEGORY
Dance

DESCRIPTION
On April 3, 1948, Françoise Sullivan and Jeanne Renaud presented one of Quebec's first modern dance events at Ross House in Montreal. Among the original works presented was Dédale, a solo performance by Françoise Sullivan. In this version, shot in an labyrinthine urban setting, the dancer Ginette Boutin reinterprets the work, revealing its continued topicality.

IMAGE FORMAT
16:9

SOUND
Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT
Betacam
HD

KEYWORDS
Françoise Sullivan, choreography, solo, adaptation

THEMES
Art and culture
History