THE DREAMS OF FUNCTION

DIRECTOR
Paul Landon

DURATION
24:57

YEAR
1985

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
No dialogue

CATEGORY
Video Art

DESCRIPTION
The Dreams of Function attempts to analyse possible narrative structures by utilizing subjects (a clock, a kettle, a hair dryer and a radio) that act as signifiers of and by themselves. The implicit subject of this six part tape is its form. The viewer becomes more aware of camera techniques, timing and soundtrack when these devices are used in conjunction with an unorthodox cast.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

KEYWORDS
Object, Function, Language, Dreaming

THEMES
Art and culture
Society