DESCRIPTION
A grain of skin in a garden of sand.
The fall, and then the leap...
The deep breath lifts the waves of voluptuous solitude.

Filmed among the immense dunes of Cabo Polonio on the Atlantic Ocean in Uruguay, Arena is a video dance in which sand, sea and skin merge. In this dry and unpopulated environment, Peter Trosztmer uses his nude body to express desire and rupture, the eternal quest of one’s inner voice.
