CANADIAN TIME 2

DIRECTOR
Christine Kirouac

DURATION
4:30

YEAR
2011

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
English (text on-screen)
No dialogue

CATEGORY
Video Art

DESCRIPTION
Alluding to the twelve-hour drive from her home in North Carolina to the Canadian border, Kirouac marries painting and tragi-comic theater in a performance of equal duration. Simultaneously abstract and visceral, Canadian Time 2 bring life to the physical and psychological anxieties of statehood as Kirouac wrestles with the tenuous status of living as an "alien" in the U.S. under strict and at times nonsensical immigration rules.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

SOUND
Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT
HDV

KEYWORDS
Boxing, Time, Immigration, Performance, Work

THEMES
Art and culture
Identity