DESCRIPTION
One year after Judgement Day, the meeting of an old rebel and a young warrior named Narcisse ends in tragedy because the revolution must die in order to exist. But the next day, while washing her underwear in the toxic pool of Torontonian decay, the man reappears. Revolutionaries are made of tough stuff.

FURTHER INFORMATION

“I shot this video in less than 12 hours at a downtown location in Toronto, right before they started the construction of a condominium. This was my first major collaboration with Jake Chirico, a young local cinematographer. I consider this piece the beginning of a new working period.” - Istvan Kantor
