DESCRIPTION
Les Loups was constructed as we construct a place. "I tried to enter into a state of observation which would permit me to create targets: a face, an ordinary object, materials... all were sufficient elements to feel the strange danger born of the opening of certain sub-concious pathways. The past, present, future, movement, immobility, obscurity, light...all this is interchangeable. Nothing is important. Eat, laugh, drink with others to feel alive. (Francisco Ruiz de Infante)
