LUMEN

DIRECTOR
Sarah Seené

DURATION
1:41

YEAR
2019

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
French

CATEGORY
Experimental Documentary

DESCRIPTION
Lumen (meaning light in Latin) is a sensorial film shot in Super 8 that paints a portrait of an adolescent with albinism. The hypersensitivity that this genetic condition engenders and the lack of pigmentation in her skin and eyes lend her an extraordinary aura. This film echoes a series of photographs entitled Fovea, which takes as its subject visually impaired young people.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

SOUND
Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT
Super 8

KEYWORDS
Albinism, adolescence, portrait

THEMES
Identity
Private life