PAN & SYRINX

DIRECTOR
A. Laurel Lawrence

DURATION
16:07

YEAR
2024

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
English

CATEGORY
Dance Experimental Fiction

DESCRIPTION
In the last breaths of bacchanale, two lovers are told the tale of the great god Pan’s violent pursuit of the forest nymph Syrinx. As the story’s violent end unfolds, the lovers are haunted by the parts they find themselves playing.

The film refracts the myth through layers of song, identity, and performance: at once a ballet, a trans fantasia, and an exploration of love and power.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

SOUND
Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT
16 mm

KEYWORDS
myth, dance, Greek, queer, 16mm

THEMES
Art and culture
Dance
Fantasy
LGBTQIA+ Sexuality
Theatre