

PAN & SYRINX

DIRECTOR

A. Laurel Lawrence

DURATION

16:07

YEAR

2024

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

English

CATEGORY

Dance

Experimental

Fiction

DESCRIPTION

In the last breaths of bacchanale, two lovers are told the tale of the great god Pan's violent pursuit of the forest nymph Syrx. As the story's violent end unfolds, the lovers are haunted by the parts they find themselves playing.

The film refracts the myth through layers of song, identity, and performance: at once a ballet, a trans fantasia, and an exploration of love and power.

IMAGE FORMAT

4:3

SOUND

Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT

16 mm

KEYWORDS

myth, dance, Greek, queer, 16mm

THEMES

Art and culture

Dance

Fantasy

LGBTQIA+

Sexuality

Theatre