

MICHEL IN THE SUÊTES

DIRECTOR

Neal Livingston

DURATION

0:04

YEAR

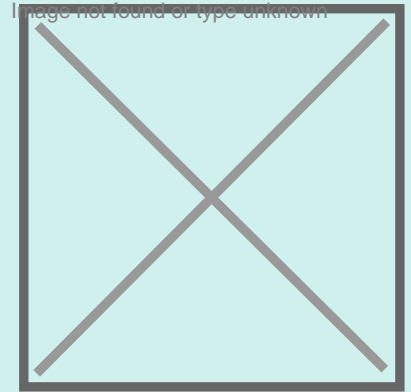

1998

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

No dialogue

CATEGORY

Documentary

DESCRIPTION

A hilarious comic documentary about Michel Williatte-Battet's attempt to carry out a normal day's activities during a Suête wind storm. The results are unpredictable and side-splitting! Suêtes are hurricane-force southeasterly winds that beat down on the French Acadian coastal area of north-western Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, during the spring and autumn.

SOUND

Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT

16 mm

FURTHER INFORMATION

Made from the film Suêtes.

KEYWORDS

Wind, Hurricane, Natural phenomena, Everyday life, House, Absurdity

THEMES

Environment