Vithèque
La collection
de Vidéographe

ST-LAURENT

DIRECTOR
Corin Corfu

DURATION
0:15

YEAR
1972

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE
English
French

CATEGORY
Documentary

DESCRIPTION
A fragmented look at the intellectual activities of the artists and residents of Montréal's famous, "boulevard of broken dreams", located on boulevard St-Laurent. Back in 1972, before it became mandatory for businesses in Québec to display signs in French, the area had a unique character. This character is well captured on film through several interviews with local artists and recurring images of street scenes.

IMAGE FORMAT
4:3

SOUND
Mono

KEYWORDS
City, District, Community

THEMES
Art and culture
Environment
Society