DESCRIPTION

A choreography by Ginette Laurin, presented in June 1984, in the context of a symposium about art and technology entitled Molécule'art. The dance company is composed of France Bruyère, Ginette Laurin, Isabelle Marcil, Ginette Prévost and Gilles Simard. Marc Paradis, the video-maker, brings a specific element to this dance performance which is properly treated with the video medium language. His intention was to transpose a visual rhythm to the rhythm of the choreography.
