DESCRIPTION

This document successively tackles the different phases of hypnosis; from the hypnotic state to the deep trance state when the individual loses the structure of his/her personality. At this point, the hypnotist can make a person take on a new personality. But isn't this theft of the unconscious accomplished every day by the media? Jehu the hypnotist affirms this and illustrates his thesis giving us examples of hypnotic states. As serious as this video seems, it is not without humour. We watch a man convinced that he is P.E. Trudeau deliver a political speech during an electoral campaign against the Creditists.
