Montréal/Brooklyn

DESCRIPTION

In this first episode we present the Centre Clark and the Parker's Box gallery, the initiators of the exchange project between the two city's. At the same you will discover the works and artists presented in these sites.

This series documents the Brooklyn/Montreal project, a Centre Clark initiative involving 16 institutions and 40 artists in a series of reciprocal exhibitions that revealed the cultural differences and similarities of two cities, both standard-bearers of contemporary art in North America. The event took place in Montreal from October 19 to November 17, 2012, and in Brooklyn from January 10 to February 2, 2013.
