DESCRIPTION

Apertura in Spanish means « opening ».

This is an opening towards a foreign tongue, a corporal door, of words...

We receive, we learn, we accumulate, we try, we do, we say, we get it wrong, we gorge, we regurgitate...

The mouth is a passage of words, of sentences, of thoughts.

But those words are said wrong, vomited by an overfull, they are not my words, but your words that I try to claim as my own.
