

IF FROM EVERY TONGUE IT DRIPS

DIRECTOR

Sharlene Bamboat

DURATION

1:08

YEAR

2021

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

English

CATEGORY

Documentary

Installation

Experimental

DESCRIPTION

If from Every Tongue It Drips explores questions of distance and proximity, identity and otherness, through scenes from the daily interactions between two queer women—a poet and a cameraperson. Connected through languages - Urdu, Tamil & English, personal and national histories, music and dance, and the gaze of the camera lens, they explore subjects both expansively cosmic and intimately close—from quantum superposition to the links between British colonialism and Indian nationalism.

IMAGE FORMAT

1.78:1

SOUND

Stereo

SHOOTING FORMAT

HD

KEYWORDS

identity, identité, relationships, relations, temps, espace, distance, proximity