

ST-LAURENT

DIRECTOR

Corin Corfu

DURATION

0:15

YEAR

1972

ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

English

French

CATEGORY

Documentary

DESCRIPTION

A fragmented look at the intellectual activities of the artists and residents of Montréal's famous, "boulevard of broken dreams", located on boulevard St-Laurent. Back in 1972, before it became mandatory for businesses in Québec to display signs in French, the area had a unique character. This character is well captured on film through several interviews with local artists and recurring images of street scenes.

IMAGE FORMAT

4:3

SOUND

Mono

KEYWORDS

City, District, Community

THEMES

Art and culture

Environment

Society